Chill out or live it up in Cape Maclear – here the choice is yours...

Some say that at Cape Maclear doing nothing is the whole point. As you settle into your shady thatched chalet at Mgoza Lodge, with beautiful Lake Malawi just a few steps away, this is certainly an available and attractive option. But Cape Maclear is much more than that - it is a fusion of stunning scenery, bountiful nature, and a beach strip full of entertainment options – all gift-wrapped in traditional African village culture. Cape Maclear is located at the end of the road, at the tip of the peninsula. Forested hills rise up behind and the liquid horizon of Lake Malawi stretches away in front to cut it off from the pressures and bustle of mainland Africa and city life.

Mgoza is situated right on the water's edge. It has a wonderful shady lawn dotted with comfortable cane chairs and hammocks. You can stay right here and enjoy a meal and a beer in the upstairs open reed bar. Or you can drift up and down the beach checking out the curio stalls and the restaurants and bars, ranging from local establishments specialising in delicious fish curries, to upmarket French cuisine at Cape Mac Lodge.

Cape Maclear – the quintessential exotic chill zone on one of Africa's most beautiful beaches.
